Join us for an exceptional event
celebrating Hispanic Jewish culture, heritage & history in LA!

After years of working across Spanish-speaking countries, the Hispanic Jewish Foundation presents an evening of delightful cuisine, cocktails & dynamic entertainment.

Learn about the Hispanic Jewish Museum, the first of its kind, now under construction in Madrid.

Sephardic food and drinks designed by: Rafael Ansón, Founder of the Spanish Royal Gastronomic Academy

Featuring a performance by world-renowned flamenco dancer

Jesus Carmona

The mission of the Fundacion HispanoJudia is to honor over 2000 years of Jewish presence in the Iberian Peninsula and celebrate Sephardic culture and its impact around the world. FHJ's core project is the completion of the Museo HispanoJudio in Madrid, where the deep Jewish roots of Hispanic culture will be explored and enjoyed in a first-of-its-kind experience.
